Agenda, Events, and Publications 2016-2019

2016

University of Pannonia Kőszeg Campus, Docent in International Studies

- I provided all personal information for the new Pannon-Kőszeg Campus website (bio, courses, research: 82 pages)
- I provided an outline of my tasks related to the implementation of the IS program as a Jean Monnet Chair in Kőszeg, that includes:
  1. Production oversight and approval of all outgoing materials in English for both International Studies and Cultural Heritage Management programs: brochures, advertisements, application forms, website content, scholarship flyer, etc.
  2. Review of international applications.
  3. Construction of the curricula and timetable of courses for the International Studies Program; this includes contacting potential instructors, liaising with the CEU, the assessment procedures for courses, and their credit value allocation.
  4. Recruitment of external teaching staff for program courses, with all related correspondence.
  5. Coordination of staff, regarding student participation (visa, housing, payments, etc.)
  6. Teaching courses and seminars in the program.
  7. Including International Studies young scholars in my present research work.
  8. Academic Advisor: Supervision of all International Studies students academic work and progress.
  9. I worked as MA Thesis Advisor to students' MA theses in fields related to my research; and participation in the MA thesis defense procedures.
- I supervised and advised all staff working on the implementation of International Studies in the framework of the Jean Monnet Chair in Kőszeg.

Director of ISES

- Included ISES in participation of a Citizens4Europe application as a partner, for funding.
- I finalized the paper work for the Erasmus student exchange student to and from the IS program.
- I participated as an external expert to the European Commission for the Jean Monnet selection process for 2016.
